

A typical journey for a student attending the Wheels Project

Your student must start with either the Karts or Bicycle programmes to give them a chance to see if they engage with the project. If they do, they can then choose a route which meets their needs using the options shown below

